Publication

The official journals of the society are the Journal of the Korean Society of Radiology (JKSR) and Korean Journal of Radiology (KJR).

The Journal of the Korean Society of Radiology is a Korean journal with English abstracts.

The Korean Journal of Radiology is an English journal which is currently indexed/ tracked/covered in MEDLINE, PubMed, PubMed Central, Science Citation Index Expanded (SCIE), KoreaMed, Synapse, KoMCI, SCOPUS, Embase, and Google Scholar. The journal aims to produce and propagate knowledge on radiologic imaging and related sciences. The impact factor of the KJR in 2022 was 4.8.

The inaugural issue of the KJR was published in March 2000. A unique feature of the articles published in the journal is their reflection of global trends in radiology combined with an East-Asian perspective. Geographic differences in disease prevalence are reflected in the contents of the papers, which serve to enrich our body of knowledge. World's outstanding radiologists from many countries are serving as editorial board of our journal.

The KJR now has an electronic submission and review system. Currently, the KJR is published monthly. Since the year 2002, the full content of the journal can be accessed online on the KJR website.
